Dawson, Carson Earn PBC Weekly Women's Soccer Honors

PBC SOCCER
WEEKLY HONORS

Posted: Sep 17, 2012

SAVANNAH, Ga. - Armstrong Atlantic State University junior midfielder Andye Dawson and sophomore goalkeeper Maggie Carson have been named the Peach Belt Conference's weekly women's soccer Player and Goalkeeper of the Week, released today by league officials.

Dawson tallied just a lone goal on the week, but it was a huge one as her 19th-minute tally on Saturday provided the difference in Armstrong's 1-0 win over No. 4 Columbus State, handing the Cougars their first loss of the season while propelling the Pirates to their third straight. The Senoia, Ga., native has two goals this season - both against nationally-ranked opponents. This is her first career PBC Player of the Week honor.

Carson, meanwhile, is still unscored upon in the 2012 season as she made four saves in Saturday's 1-0 win over the Cougars. The Aurora, Ill., native pushed away a driving header from CSU's Kansas Bailey with 42 seconds left in regulation to help preserve the one-goal win. She has not given up a goal in 2012, a span of 318 minutes and 52 seconds and she tops the PBC and NCAA DII in goals against average early on in 2012. This is her first career PBC Goalkeeper of the Week honor.

The No. 24-ranked Pirates return to action on Friday, September 21st, hosting Montevallo in a Peach Belt Conference matchup at 4:00 p.m. at the Armstrong Soccer Field.
